THE BOOK

White as Sin redefines the conversation about race relations by addressing the fundamental question — Why? Why is America's history so stained with the horrors of racial oppression? And why does racial dysfunction continue to bedevil both the Church and the broader society? The author locates the problem in an immoral attitude deeply embedded in white identity, something he calls “racial haughtiness.”

This exhaustively researched book traces the influence of racial haughtiness across the centuries and right into today's headlines. Finally, White as Sin points the way to a process of moral transformation designed to redress the past and re-imagine the future.

ENDORSEMENTS

"In White As Sin, Scott Garber has written a compelling explanation and history of whiteness as a social construct, particularly how it is rooted in a sinful haughtiness that is deeply ingrained both at the personal and corporate level. In a time such as this, White As Sin is a book that white Christians need to read."

Jim Wallis, The New York Times bestselling author of America's Original Sin: Racism, White Privilege, and The Bridge to a New America, president of Sojourners, and editor-in-chief of Sojourners magazine

"Garber does not pull any punches in this illuminating and...indispensable work that challenges white Christians to confront and atone for past sins."

Kirkus Reviews

"Scott Garber is a prophetic voice uniquely positioned to do what prophets do: consider the fault-lines beneath the surface, carefully expose them, and call people to radical transformation. White As Sin is strong medicine, but it has remarkable potential to heal our land."

Dr. D. Brent Sandy, New Testament scholar and co-author of The Lost World of Scripture

ENDORSEMENTS

"Scott Garber offers a fresh perspective that will appeal to thought leaders, especially Christian leaders, who are troubled by the persistence of race-related problems in our society. White As Sin is a serious, meaty, and quite possibly controversial book on a topic that is critically important both to Christians and to our nation."

Galen Carey, Vice President of Government Relations for the National Association of Evangelicals

"Scott Garber gives a weighty and thoughtful progression of racialization and the sin of racism from the Garden of Eden to the fields of America, to the modern-day struggles of racial haughtiness in the 21st century...White As Sin challenges the conversation about reconciliation head on."

Dr. David Anderson, Sr. Pastor of Bridgeway Community Church in Columbia, MD and author of *Gracism: The Art of Inclusion
